1. SELFIE GAME STRONG

In traditional Hindu clothing, Enas Beauti, 10, poses for a selfie in front of the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem. "We prayed here and toured all around," Beauti said. "The inside of the dome was beautiful." Enas Beauti photo

2. HANGIN' OUT

Dancing around at the annual outdoor music event "Hangout Festival" in Gulf Shores, Alabama, seniors Hanisee Sirmon and Bogdana Koveshnikova laugh as they are lifted up onto their friends' shoulders. "I loved watching the artist Cash Cash perform," Sirmon said. "They told everybody in the crowd 'Right now, I want every girl to get on someone's shoulders. Let me see y'all in the air.'" You could just tell everyone was having a really good time from the smiles on their faces." Hanisee Sirmon photo

3. UH OH

Although busted by the cops, Michael Gornak, 12, doesn't let it ruin his night. "During Senior Roll Night, the 'Fedz' were a big issue," Gornak said. "It was hard not getting caught and trying to avoid having to throw away all of the toilet paper, so I hid it in a bush somewhere." Michael Gornak photo

4. WHAT HAPPENS IN VEGAS

On a mission trip with her church, Jaylyn Marshall, 11, got to experience a side of Vegas she's never seen before. "I loved feeding the homeless because they are people too, and it makes you humble and thankful for what you have." Caleb Fortenberry photo

5. ALOHA

After a long day of exploring on her family's summer vacation in Hawaii, Lindey Bryant, 12, finds a vintage Volkswagen. "I made good use of my time there," Bryant said. "I was able to go cliff jumping, ride in a submarine, and have a mini photoshoot in a sunflower field." Lindey Bryant photo

ALL OVER

Siblings Peyton Peoples, 9, and Callaway Peoples, 12, took a trip via water over the summer. "We went to Costa Maya, Cozumel, and Roatan," Peyton Peoples, 9, said, "We were on the third biggest ship in the world!" Peyton Peoples photo

THE BIG APPLE

Emmie Perkins, 11, made the most out of her vacation to New York City. "I was so happy to spend a week in my favorite city," Perkins said, "I got to attend a Broadway workshop, tour the city, and watch four Broadway shows." Emmie Perkins photo

ASHLYN IN THE HOUSE

Leaping in front of the Washington Monument in Washington, D.C., Ashlyn Trussell, 12, makes a pit stop on her way to Africa. "We stopped because we wanted to see the LDS Temple and the White House," Trussell said. Ashlyn Trussell photo

UP IN HERE

Frances McMurtry, 11, stops to take a picture at the Denali National Park in Alaska. "It was completely different than what I thought it would be," McMurtry said. "It wasn't as remote and desolate as everyone said it was." Frances McMurtry photo

COSTA RICA

While on a trip to Costa Rica with her soccer team, Maggie Starns, 11, takes a break to go zip lining. "We only played three games in all nine days of being there," Starns said. "The other days we just did a lot touristy things." Maggie Starns photo
