

Healed Wounds and Deep Scars

(verse one)

It's been a long time since we talked about our history we never really talk at all.

It's been a long time since we laughed just to laugh, solely since the smile reached your eyes

It's been a long time since I talked about our goodbye and I know I need to move on (pre-chorus)

but I Can't forget golden lips and suntanned skin

(chorus)

Our last kiss in your front yard,
I can still feel it break my heart
Our first laugh in a back seat
First time you said you loved me
And I can still see it in your eyes Full of love and good times guess I'll really never move on,
From these healed wounds and deep scars

(verse two)

I close my eyes and let it go let go of all I used to know didn't mean anything at all

I close my eyes and breathe in slow let out the words you'll never know cause you wouldn't answer if I called

I close my eyes so I can see all of the pain you left with me I know I need to move on

(pre chorus)

Still I, cant forget
golden lips and suntanned skin

(chorus)

Our last kiss in your front yard
I can still feel it break my heart,
Our first laugh in a back seat,
and i can still see it in your eyes full of love and good times guess i'll really never move on
From these healed wounds and deep

(bridge)

Scars
Oh you know I can't forget Starlight night,
The look in your eyes the glow on your bare skin Hold me close Kiss me slow
And don't let me Go

(final chorus)

Our last kiss in your front yard
I can still feel it break my heart
our last laugh in my front seat Last time you said you loved me
and i can still see it in your eyes
Full of tears and goodbyes It's time for me to move on
From these healed wounds and deep scars
