

Gracie

Maciah Diggs

After my blue dream
There was no more peace
No serenity
My dreams were as wild as my reality
Not until she came
I remember the feeling of pure happiness inside me
Hearing her giggle ring in my ears Seeing this little girl named Gracie running around with such joy Her feet made the slightest taps on the wooden floors that followed with claps coming from her tiny soft hands Her jet black curls bouncing everywhere
Her face uncanny to mine Her smile was so warm it brought tears to my eyes
I hope I see her again
I love you Gracie girl
