WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN US!

"After joining the Amory High School Journalism Class my sophomore year, my eyes were opened to the world of journalism, and all of the opportunities it provided to me! I was able to take pictures; interview coaches, students, and staff and learn more about my school and the community around me. After two yearbooks and a third in mind, I was named the Editor-In-Chief of the Amory Panorama. I now help design, write copy, and photograph for our yearbook. However, the Panorama is not the only opportunity presented by Amory Journalism. We have an online newspaper, podcast, and social media presence for anyone to try out. If you are at all interested in telling stories in any way, shape, or form, join AHS Journalism! You will not regret it!"

2021-22 Editor-in-Chief

DESIGN

Designing a yearbook or news spread is not as easy as putting a picture on a page. It takes thought, passion, and creativity. In order to design, you have to grab your peers' attention while still effectively introducing the rest of your information about each organization, sport, or club. You need to have the drive to put your spread together in order to bring the activity to life.

COPY

News articles keep us in the know. Yearbooks serve as history books for our school. The AHS Journalism Staff strive to answer as many of the who, what, when, where, and why as possible. The words on the spreads aid us in the present and will preserve our stories for many years to come.

JOURNALISM CLASS

The Journalism class consists of a small group of staff members who work on common goals. If you are not able to fit the class into your schedule, please see Mrs. Wright to see how you can help outside of class.
