Each September, Patriot Vision is tasked with promoting Constitution Week as part of a U.S. Department of Education requirement to educate and celebrate the signing of the Constitution on September 17th, 1787.

This year, we wanted to use our platform to present Constitution Week the school in a way that was both informative and entertaining. After giving Constitution facts throughout the week, we hosted a live, schoolwide trivia contest for students to earn $25 Starbucks gift card.

For Constitution Week, PV Reporter Charlotte Wilson presented a series of brief segments on Constitution facts that focused on a different topic each day. These segments were broadcast to the student body as part of our daily newscast.

A promotional graphic was displayed our scrolling video marquee in all the classroom tvs and common areas of the school to remind students of the contest and to provide the Kahoot contest code on the morning of the game.

For our finale, Anna Clark Bridges and Kaitlyn Hicks hosted a live episode of their popular podcast, The Traci & Tracy Show, where they held a schoolwide, interactive Kahoot contest for the student body based on Charlotte's Constitution facts that were presented throughout the week.
